THOMAS GLASS PUBLISHER

IRONTON OHIO, TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1854.

BENJ. P. CORY. EDITORS.

JUDGE WADE'S SPEECH.

was boiling; that the people were indigfrom this impending dishonor, this great meditated wrong, which is big with darger to the good neighborhood of the differrent sections of the country, if not to the stability of the Union itself. Big make the presentative of the North were powerless to vindicate her honor, her interest, and cannot be averted or delayed, if the North were powerless to vindicate her honor, her interest, and cannot be reverted or for some interest, where he honor, her interest, and those with whom we associate, are principles in the people were indigfrom this impending dishonor, this great mant and exited in a onsequence of the who have been educated, and walked the interest socions of the country, if not to the stability of the Union itself. Big passed the present ession, you will self-command as to commit murder, in a passion, and sannot be averted or delayedslor, and cannot be averted or delayedif the North were powerless to vindicate her honor, ber interest, and ber principles in the people were indigmant and exited in a onsequence of the difstore, and those with whom we associate, are non danger.

The mudered man kept a grocetywhich she resorted to purchases
the tractice of the thirty mangled, both arms being torn from the body. And self-command as to commit murder, no
is passed the present ession, you will
self-command as to commit murder, no
is passed. He present ession, you as a tractice mile which the country is a command store of the evening of from this impending dishonor, this great meditated wrong, which is big with danintroduction of this bill; and he called Men in high life commit murder, men will be the result.

Sir, while this deed of wrong and shame goes unavenged, I shall feel but little interest in whatever else you may Mr. President, I have all my life belonged to the great national Whig party, and never yet have I failed, with all the shility I have, to support her regular candidates, come from what portion of the Union they might; and much oftner has it been my lot to battle for a Southern than for a Northern candidate for the Presidency. And when such candidate was assailed by those who were jentous of slaveholders and did not like to yield up the government into ich hands, how often have I encountered the violent prejudices of my own tion, with no little hazard to myself! triumphantly would I appeal on occasions to Southern honor, to magnanimity of soul, which I believed always actuated Southern gentled in Alas! alas! if Gol will pardon me for what I have done in this line, I will promise to sin no more.

After this I hope to hear no more from them of national parties. They have by their own act rendered such a the units of the danger of the subject of slavery, in the subject of slavery, if the re is anything seen to prevent one section of this country from coming into codificion, fact of face, with the other, without a possible. They cannot be trusted. How much mode of escope, on a direct sectional is and their own one of escope, on and direct sectional is such as the other own on the other, without a possible in the other, without a possible of slavery, in the other, without a possible of slavery, in the other, without a possible of slavery in the other of slavery in the other. They cannot be trusted. How much indicated form and the responsibilities of the darget of the darget of the darget and heading over happy figures. Have you ever seen an eagle fettered the earth, day after days on the the protect of a few rey happy figures. Have you ever seen an eagle fettered the earth, day after day and week after week? How his plumage droops the nation of a five week? How his plumage droops the nation of a few reports of a few general, or it must cease to be at all.— question of Slavery shall go into these among the noble and the high-horn; and crimes which disgrace humanity?

And Mr. President, let it always be cart Tarried and hence you seek a it was humiliating to her proud rela-And, Mr. President, let it always be vast Territories, and hence you seek, a it was humiliating to her proud relaunderstood, that this sectional strife was settlement of this great question now, tions that she should be connected, and this recital, my woman's heart would coffee roaster, and revolved over a fire, And my apprehensions have been more than realized. Mr. President, our Southem bretheren know full well that no will only be partial.

I the holiest and most important relations and mercy, nad that no will only be partial.

Northern Whig can in any way faver Mr. Wade—Very well; but the pub. ship of life, and thus disobey her part heart, she would have learned to govern the pub. ship of life, and thus disobey her part heart, she would have learned to govern the pub. this measure and live. Yea Sir, they know that such treachery ought not politically to survive. But with a full triumph the passage of this bill will be knowledge of this, they have compelled every Northern Whig to become their political enemy, or betray his constitupolitical enemy, or betray his constituents. I do not complain of these things; Southern Whigs had a right to do as they pleased, and they have chosen to precisely what is on foot there, but I his death did not restore her to their for- and they have no no right, even for sin ioin the common enemy in an urjust war upon the rights and honor of the North.

Away then with these false precences of love for the Union! But the bitterest love of the bitteres Away then with these false precences of love for the Union? But the bitterest reflection of all is to feel that we deserve the scorn an contempt of our Southern bretheren, and of the world. Had they not held held us in utter contempt, they would not have dared to undertake the repeal of this pld time-honored guarantee of freedom; and that too, without consulting us. And yet it seems to be thought that we shall not resent it; but that we shall still go on as formerly, and a little more by way of interest, and a little more by way of interest, and the same of Whiggery, just as if nothing special had taken place. Well Sir, from our former tameness and good nature they should reflect that we have now no Cley and Webster to alarm our fears for the Union, while they surrendered us to dishoner. But Mr. President, twill not complisin, the fault is, and has always been and is all our own. We certainly can not have any farther policial cannet in the same. I feel that my has pliced and reflected and self-respect compel a man abolitionist, and I choose the latter, a look and the notified and reflected and self-respect compel a man abolitionist, and I choose the latter, a look and the notified and reflected and self-respect compel a man abolitionist, and I choose the latter, a look and the notified and reflected and reflected expect to do in this rotten borough department of the government, where the partment of the government, where the voice of the people is scarcely heard at all. He date not all these discussions, Mr. President, I proudly and confidently appeal to the people themselves. If, indeed, they shall tamely submit to this insult, they will then deserve all the forement the submit to the people of that noble State elect him to insult, they will then deserve all the contempt that the South cannot but feel for the next tea-party exhibition. He had is sick, and the whole heart faint, then with the high-born—as to mingle introduced in this model as we read the sad tale concern gone in honerable intercourse with the lowly. We have known an instance when an amorous old gentleman from an out-state and the south cannot but feel for the next tea-party exhibition. We have known an instance when an amorous old gentleman from an out-state and the south cannot but feel the people with this great question. No, Sir, not he. Do it now, before the such a such posterior in the people with this great question. The high-born—as to mingle introduced in the such the leafly the lowly. We have known an instance when an amorous old gentleman from an out-state and the south cannot but feel for the next tea-party exhibition. We have known an instance when an anistance when an anistance was nearly by the lowly. The high-born and out-state and the south cannot but feel in the one feer the sad tale concern gone the brink of learn that in the evening nearly the brink of the leavy. We have known an instance when an anistance was nout in stance was not content to the house of some as it all the fee and high-minded at the content of the learn that in the sad the concern gone in the south cannot but feel to the house of some as it all the fee and high-minded as we read the sad tale concern an out-state and the solice the high directours with the lowly.

The high-born lad these soirces, and in the hope soirces, and in the long of the people with this did no before the people can have an opportu- | dened. nity to express their opinion on the sub-

The moment this hill was laid on our the heavens and the glory of this repub. forth to call herself by their name, or no more likely to come to such a fate tables, I conferred with some Southern lie should both go into obscurity and number herself as one of her father's than they; now standing convicted of a Whigs on its disastrous consequences, darkness together. Let the bill then family. should it be forced upon the country .- pass; it is a proper occasion for so dark There are instances when it is right to an ignominious death.

> lic honor will be tarnished for ever. I ents, when she should not yield to their a naturally wayward temper; and the know very well, Sir, with what a yell of foolish and wicked commands, against driven from home and all its endear-going on there?

that I stand here utterly powerless to the assurance that if offences must come, the. She need not have breathed the whelming. No southern enemy of hers The future of the Republic is throught plicated in a murder. We are shocked, can wish her deeper degradation. God knows that I feel it keenly enough, and I have no desire to prolong the melancholy spectacle. I know full well that no words of miner of the Republic is rhrouled in gloom. Let every man do his duty, and turn away, wishing to forget the reliance import to every daughter in the not necessary to consider it a warning:

There is the tuture of the Republic is rhrouled in plicated in a murler. We are shocked, and yet it speaks with words of import to every daughter in the not necessary to consider it a warning:

There is the tuture of the Republic is rhrouled in plicated in a murler. We are shocked, and yet it speaks with words of import to every daughter in the necessary to consider it a warning:

There is the tuture of the Republic is rhrouled in plicated in a murler. We are shocked, and yet it speaks with words of import to every daughter in the necessary to consider it a warning:

There is the tuture of the Republic is rhrouled in plicated in a murler. We are shocked, and yet it speaks with words of import to every daughter in the necessary to consider it a warning:

There is the tuture of the Republic is rhrouled in plicated in a murler. We are shocked, and yet it speaks with words of import to every daughter in the necessary to consider it a warning:

There is the tuture of the Republic is rhrouled in plicated in a murler. We are shocked, and yet it speaks with words of import to every daughter in the necessary to consider it a warning:

There is a tuture of the Republic is rhrouled in plicated in a murler. We are shocked, and yet it speaks with words of import to every daughter in the necessary to consider it a warning:

The tuture of the Republic is rhrouled in place in the necessary to consider it a warning:

The tuture of the revery man do his duty, and turn away, wishing to forget the reverse in the necessary to consider it a warning:

The tuture of the revery man do his duty, and turn away, wishing to forget the reverse in the necessary to consider it a warning:

The t

that a daughter should obey the instincts If the principles of a holy religion, no words of mine can save the country from this impending dishonor, this great a course as that? Is he a Democrat, Sir, to aid in getting up such a question here? A question on which no man was elected to a seat here; of which the people never dreamed, and from which their sense of justice revolts; and urging it through the justice revolts; and urging it through the public journals, concerning her history; fore the people can have an analysis through the public journals, concerning her history; and many occasion of festivity, and disturbed their sense of justice revolts; and urging it through the public journals, concerning her history; resumed her ordinary calls, on business, but that she committed the crime there are least their house, unaidden on any occasion of festivity, and disturbed the highest disdain, wonit several feet out of place, breaking of and destroying the lathing and plasterthe head of the north partition wall, throwing it several feet out of place, breaking of and destroying the lathing and destroying the l fore the people can have an opportunity but that she committed the crime, there and manifested no irritation, except it tions are never repulsed, and the an- front room were also much injured. to express their opinion on the subject.

The very declaration he has made shows that he is conscious that the people never dreamel, and from which their sense of the single of the same o of justice revolts; and orging it through ed by a heart utterly corrupted and har- every week. How vindictive and ma- specifily follows, the bride's modest of Mr. Allison. efore the people can have an opportuity to express their opinion on the subity. The very declaration he has made it. The very declaration he has made it. Aye, and thus seems to have been a bomb in the school contributes her aid in the schoo ject. The very declaration he has made shown and the seems to have been shown that he is conscious that the people are opposed to him on this measure. In urging it upon them is he not delibered and shown and the seems to have been she was planning, and to accomplish the school contributes her aid in the shool and Mrs. Allison were in the act of opening it, when it exploded.

She was high-born! and she must not tree! There had been no evidence or startly violating the will of the people wed with the lowly. What was the national and she must not suspicion of previous insanity. She was related to citizens in triomph from the Island.

The process is a very interesting one; to divine, but if the facts as related to erately violating the will of the people wed with the lowly. What was the na- suspicion of previous insanity. She was capital crime, and doomed by the law and damning a deed. that a daughter should obey the instincts If the principles of a holy religion, Mr. Brown—The eclipse of the sun, which God has given to govern her in which teaches for giveness, long-suffering,

Mr. Brown—Do you know what is know rot.

She separated from her family, and warning? They have no right to trambured with her husband till he died. But ple upon the affections of their children,

How they get a Wife in India.

whether highborn or plebian.

There seems not the least palliating are then informed of this intended visit, Mr. Allison was Superintendent of the actor of the Rapids at this point can incumstance in all the history of this and its purport; and those who desire to Hospital. circumstance in all the history of this and its purport; and those who desire to Hospital. imagine the skill and presence of mind terrible murler. There was no more enter the matrimonial lists come for Dr. Baker, President of the Faculty, necessary to pilot directly across the lignant must be her temper, to meet for "trosseau" being provided from the funds This leaves the impression that the in- little cove at the lower end of the Is-algment that he is no Democrat. Sir, do not know; but this is the reason give it is not probable that she remained in steel is rolled, and otherwise prepared this whole moment shows that, even under our boastel institutions, what danger there is that the will of the people may be disregarded and prostratel of the people may be disregarded and prostrated to constitute him a worthy ple may be disregarded and prostrated to constitute him a worthy whole family and there is not probable that she remained in the reason given it is not probable that she remained in the probable that she remained in the constitution of the population of her friends, that the poison in a fit of intextication, but deliberately, and in her right min l.

The process is a very interesting one;

She evidently intended to poison the blank. —Women work whole family and there is not probable that she remained in the continuous plants of the cut into pens by means of a press, in which the proper tools are fitted for deliberately, and in her right min l.

She evidently intended to poison the blank. —Women work whole family and there is not probable that she remained in the cut into pens by means of a press, in which the proper tools are fitted for deliberately, and in her right min l.

She evidently intended to poison the whole family and there is not probable that she remained in the continuous pens by means of a press, in which the proper tools are fitted for deliberately. The property is not probable that she remained in the continuous pens by means of a press, in which the proper tools are fitted for deliberately and in her right min l.

She evidently intended to poison the property of the poison in a fit of intended for the property of the poison in a fit of intended for the property of the poison in a fit of intended for the poison in a fit of in by a corrupt Executive, and by faithless ty necessary to constitute him a worthy representatives of the people. Yes Sir, and agreeable companion; but she was an empire is to be transformed from the daughter of an Irish lord; and an empire is to be transformed from the daughter of an Irish lord; and an empire is to be transformed from the daughter of an Irish lord; and an empire is to be transformed from the daughter of an Irish lord; and an empire is to be transformed from the daughter of an Irish lord; and an empire is to be transformed from the daughter of an Irish lord; and an empire is to be transformed from the daughter of an Irish lord; and an empire is to be transformed from the daughter of an Irish lord; and an empire is to be transformed from the daughter of an Irish lord; and an empire is to be transformed from the daughter of an Irish lord; and the side slits are the central hole and the side slits are daily be as an offering to the daring adventures. After this I hope to hear no more from Freedom to Slavery, and the people English officer, who was paid for the dow of remorse. She appears daily be- made-at another press; after which ing very happy figure: press, that one hand will slit one hun-> sorted, varnished and ready for sale. I now take the opportunity of making a confession which I have often had upon my lip?, but have besitated to make from the fear of drawing upon myself the South Besin, (that is from the Sharp the hatred of every married woman.

>
> But now I will run the risk—so now for it—some time or other, people must ing red and white ash, the whole thick her children; it lightens the busies of unburden their hearts. I confess, then, that I never find, and never have found a man more loveable, and more capti. In mining, we have 45 feet, or 15 yards colors. There is no one I enjoy so valing than when he is a married man. in thickness of merchantable coal. much as I do him; a cap and bells are valing than when he is a married man. A man is never so handsome, never so pefect, in my eyes, as when he is married, as when he is a [husband, and the father of a family, supporting in his manly arms, wife and children, and the whole domestic circle, which, on his entrance into the married state, closes around him, and constitutes part of his home and world. He it not merely ennobled by his position, but he is actually beautified by it—then he appears to me as the crown of creation; and it is only such a man as this who is danger.
>
> In thickness of merchantable cost. There being 48,000 square yards to the acrew to him; a tune upon the lagous let a concert; if the sun shines, he sports himself in its beams; if the storm comes he skips gaily along, and when wet to skin it only serves to make out a pleasure of the real value of an acre of our coal land, without exaggeration or embellishment. It is not strange, therefore, that our lands have, and are still increasing so largely in value. In England, coal lands, not man as the crown of creation; and it is only such a man as this who is danger. ine as the crown of creation; and it is only such a man as this who is dangerous to me, and with whom I am incline to fell in love. But the propriety forbids
>
> The Drap of Mexico.—The Ameriorder of the contrary, very convents to fell in love. But the propriety forbids
>
> The Drap of Mexico.—The Ameriorder of the contrary, very convents to fell in love. But the propriety forbids
>
> The Drap of Mexico.—The Ameriits And Moses, and all European Leg-islators declare it to be sinful, and all dred gross a day. After this they are

An Awful Plot.

Among the able and pointed speeches made on the night of the final passage of the Nebraska bill in the Senate, none was marked by more sincerity, earnest, and force, than that of Judge Wade of Ohio, which follows:

Mr. President: I do not intend to dethis abject farther. The humilimation of the North is complete and over the none of the North is complete and over the none of the North is complete and over the north of the North is complete and over the north of the North is complete and over the negation of the Republic is rhoot to dear the negation of the Republic is rhoot to dear the negation of the Republic is rhoot to dear the negation of the Republic is rhoot to dear the negation of the Republic is rhoot to dear the negation of the Republic is rhoot to dear the negation of the Republic is rhoot to dear the negative state of the saverate of the s and yet it speaks with words of terrible the schoolmistress, upon an appointed day night, literally tearing Mr. & Mrs. his son immediately started for the canal import to every daughter in the land, evening, to give him an opportunity of Allison, to pieces. Mrs. Allison was beat, a distance of about ten tods. Those he represents? Sir, it is a confession of ture of the attachment she formed, we intoxicated at the time of the offense, but and the work is done by machinery. The done to ferret out the perpetrators of titers. this inhuman act.

A Fine Simile.

"Have you ever seen an eagle fettered -Ningara Falls Gazette.

Value of an Acre of Coal Land. The Pottsville, (Pa) Mining Regis-ter, alluding to the cheapness of land in an acre of coal land is worth $10,000. hears the ills of life as if they were bles-Many set down a higher figure. In sings, and seems to take the rough and make the most indifferent blesh for his serious from the most indifferent blesh for his ways been and is all our own. We certainly can most have any farther possible that her high but she shrinks from so terrible ways been and is all our own. We certainly can most have any farther possible that her high but she shrinks from so terrible ways been and is all our own. We certainly can most have any farther possible that her high but she shrinks from so terrible ways been and is all our own. We certainly can most have any farther possible that her high but she shrinks from so terrible ways been should not he modified, but she shrinks from so terrible ways here and have any farther possible. An impassable gillow in the bench, and the jury in the council the bench, and the jury in the connect can be cannot prevent the thing. It is so to show that the possible can be bench, and now, the prevent when the subject of the Americans of the bench, and the jury in the connect can be bench, and now, the prevent when the jury in the connect can be bench, and the jury in the connect can be bench, and now, the prevent whe

Great excitement on Goat Island

recained his position, they were observed to put out

We have consume f so much space already, the we have no room for ment. We have only to eay that the Mr Heally in a lecture recently de whole performance was highly creditslivered at Rochester, in speaking of the ble to the skill and bravery of Mr. American Declaration of In lependence, Robinson an! son. We understand that bled to pieces with the fingers. They and those broad wings unfold them bood. Our present Legislature has are placed in a cylinder, not unlike a selves in their native strength, and with redressed the inequality by enacting understood, that this sectional strile was settlement of this great question now, tions that she should be connected, and this recital, my woman's heart would coffee roaster, and revolved over a fire, a cry as piercing and shrill as that of that the hash of shall no longer be recommenced by the South alone—ay, by and behind the back of the people. But thus be obliged to associate with the prompt me to be silent; but the girls of which process frees them in a great measouthern Whigs. They have forced it I have done believed by the south alone and shrill as that of that the hash of shall no longer be resouthern Whigs. They have forced it I have done believed by the south alone and shrill as that of that the hash of shall no longer be resouthern Whigs. They have forced it I have done believed by the south alone and shrill as that of that the hash of shall no longer be resouthern Whigs. They have forced it I have done believed by the strains on his fetters, and sponsible for his fellow, he strains on his fetters, and sponsible for his fellow, he strains on his fetters, and sponsible for his fellow. commenced by the South alone—ay, by Southern Whigs. They have forced it on the North without their knowledge, and against their will. Should evil result from this movement, the South, and against their will. Should evil result from this movement, the South, and not the North, are responsible for it.

The beauty and behind the back of the people. But these be obliged to associate with the prompt me to be silent; but the girls of the behind the back of the people. But these be obliged to associate with the prompt me to be silent; but the girls of the people. But these be obliged to associate with the prompt me to be silent; but the girls of the people. But the behind the back of the people. But the behind the back of the people. But the behind the back of the surface of the behind the back of the people. But the behind the back of the surface of the behind the back of the people. But the surface of the behind the back of the surface of the behind the back of the surface of t with a considerable degree of roughness, dignity and glory gone, and his soul advantage of popular clergymen and they are put into tin cans, with a quantage of marred and stained. Our declaration practitioners of the gentle art of tying tity of sawdust; and being made to revolve by means of steam, they come out on his mountain crag, and the fettered purification of public morals and the clean and smooth, ready to be ground—on his mountain crag, and the lettered increase of human happines. Then an operation performed by young girls, holding them by the sid of a pair of his mountain crag, and the lettered increase of human happines. Then southers the world increase of human happines. Then southers the side of a pair of thrones of Europe to their bases, and people to unmarry themselves at please in the control of the matter of the control of the matter of the control of the contro wheel. They are then slit, an operation quiver beneath its angry blows."—Set been nullified by marriage, and we shall performed so quickly by the means of a lected. marrying and unmarrying for the next few years .- N. Y. Tribune.

Goon Humon.-He is mostlively.